

ANIMAL CONTROL CLINIC

Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 18-19
8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Horses Haven
8257 Latson Road, Howell, 48855

- Signs of equine abuse and neglect
- Documenting the horse's environment
- Examining the horse/special considerations
- BCS and limitation of body condition scoring
- Untreated injuries
- Nutrition
- Identifying disease/age-related symptoms
- Small group sessions based on experience
- Conducting livestock welfare checks
- Livestock capturing techniques and body language
- Veterinarian, Vet Tech and Farrier will be on site
- Hands on experience, haltering/leading

Registration is FREE! Space is limited! Lunch is provided.

To register, please contact Lynn Green at the Livingston County Sheriff's Office at lgreen@livgov.com

Presented by

